TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Mconjwana High School would like to thank Shell Company for funding and nominating our school to participate in the HIV & Me Teacher Training Programme which was conducted at the school on the 3rd of March 2010. A follow up was also done on the 10th of March 2010.

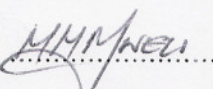

The workshop was professionally conducted, relevant to the needs of educators dealing with grade 8s in Life Orientation and Natural Science, especially the Life Sciences. The Educators also did benefit a lot from new learning strategies which mainly focus on Learner centered teaching methodologies.

We also extend our sincere gratitude to the Department of Education – Umgungundlovu District KZN for allowing the school to be part of the programme since the school does not always get such opportunities due to the fact that it is in the rural side of Pietermaritzburg.

We thank HIV & Me and the Facilitator for the material which is user friendly as well as detailed information presented to the Educators. We are satisfied. We believe that the information will assist both the Educators in their delivery and the learners. This will contribute to the reduction of the spreading of the HIV & Aids pandemic which has had negative effects in our communities where most learners are orphaned.

Thank you all. Continue supporting us, programmes like the one you exposed us to are the ones which would help our learners and communities to be better when it comes to managing HIV prevention strategies.

Regards,

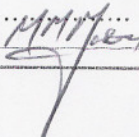

Deputy Principal

Shull SA, The Department of Education and HIV and Aids,

Dear Sirs,

Nationwide schools-based HIV AND AIDS education and Prevention Programme.

We would hereby like to express our sincere thanks and gratitude to all parties for introducing the "HIV and Me" Programme at our school, which aims to enable the youth to make responsible and informed choices about their health and sexual behaviour.

We were impressed with the new and innovative learning strategies, which aim to enhance learner and educator empowerment. The importance and urgency of the subject matter need not be over-emphasized.

Thank you
Yours faithfully
